Inner Angel Awakening

The Inner Angel Awakening empowerment has been given to us from Spirit so that we can receive the gifts of love, happiness and awaken the Angelic guidance within us. It will create energy that will transform our lives into a joyful Angelic experience.

The energy will dissolve fears and guide us through change in our lives. It will leave us feeling joyful, light and bubbly. An angelic current of love will flow through our third-dimensional bodies to provide energetic guidance, encouragement, healing and comfort. This gives us access to our own higher dimensional Angelic nature while residing in our human bodies.

This dynamic empowerment is designed to reveal our true Angelic essence, spiritual gifts and life direction. As this powerful energy is released a Higher Dimension of Self is revealed. This will allow us to begin to see ourselves through the eyes of our heart not through our ego. This amazing energy will enhance our spiritual and psychic sensitivity so that we open new and higher outlooks for directing our lives with purpose and towards happiness and fulfillment.

Angel of Space Clearing Empowerment

The Angel of Space Clearing has come to us with the message that she is with us to support us in clearing negative thought patterns and feelings that may have surfaced. This negative energy can be created when we focus on the negative, past mistakes and regrets. These thoughts and feelings are unconstructive, can cause you to feel confused, stressed and can prevent positive new energies from entering your life. The Angel of Space Clearing asks you to let go, surrender all your cares and worries to her so she can change these negative energies to a positive. This Angel asks us to take time for ourselves, to take time out when we feel pressured or overloaded and to strip everything bare and take all things back to a love basis. If you are feeling these energies, the Angel of Space Clearing suggests you try to find ways to clear yourself. If your room is cluttered, have a clear out, look at what you really need instead of holding on to possessions. Be charitable to those less fortunate than yourself, for giving will bring its own rewards. Think if you are working yourself too hard. Do I really need to push myself? Can I allow myself to have a rest? For if you take time out, your energy recharges and then new opportunities, ideas and inspiration will come your way.
