

CRYSTAL AND HERBS ATTUNEMENT PACKAGE

DESCRIPTIONS

Crystal Deva Empowerment

The Crystal Deva Empowerment assists in working with crystals and allows the student to do hands-on and remote energy work with crystal and mineral related Shakti (or healing energy).

It is an all-purpose energy work system in which you can run and use crystal energy for healing and personal development and also a system for enhancing your work with crystals. There are many attunements contained within this workshop, one being a connection with the Crystal Deva. Crystal Deva are the consciousness of the crystals, the spirits, the minds and souls of the stones.

They are individual spiritual, mental, and emotional aspects of each crystal or stone. They are the collective mind of each kind of stone. Crystal Deva are the over lighting essence and unified consciousness of all crystals and stones and all that pertains or relates to stones. The Crystal Deva Empowerments come from the Crystal Deva. The attunements will allow one to amplify crystal energy, clear and program stones and create gem elixirs. Attunements are given for “running” specific crystal and gemstone Shakti for healing work.

Once you have been attuned, you will always have the ability to use these energies and functions. These empowerments can be received by distant attunements. Some of the functions are for working with the crystals and others are for working with crystal energy. There are people who use the various healing Shakti for healing and other work who do not have actual crystals at all. The Shakti can be used hands on, beamed, hands off, and remotely.

Harmony Stone

The Harmony Stone helps one to stay balanced and in harmony and works perfectly during healing sessions. Just place one or several stones on the person receiving the healing. As a distance healing just write the person's name on a piece of paper and place the stone on the name. Additionally, it can be used by placing it under one's pillow during sleep.

Lemurian Seed Crystals

The "Lemurian Seed Crystals 1 & 2" is the second in the series of these courses.

The attunement for the Lemurian Seed Crystals enhances your ability to use crystals, especially the Lemurian Seed crystals, for directing energies, connecting to crystals, and using them to gain information and psychic messages. The attunement helps to enlighten you and gain access to the energies of the Lemurians and the crystals for healing and spiritual growth.

The "Lemurian Seed Crystals 3 and 4" is the third in the series of these courses. The Lemurian priests were able to connect with the Lemurian Seed Crystals. The Lemurian Seed Crystals are used as tools for natural healing and also with easing negative karma. Lemurian Seed Crystals 3 is an extension of the original Lemurian Seed Crystals in Levels 1 and 2. There are 4 Lemurian Seed crystals in this level.

All seed crystals should be used frequently. The more you use them, the more powerful they will become. In level 4 there are 7 new symbols. The prerequisite is Lemurian Facilitator and Lemurian Seed Crystals 3 & 4 attunements.

Amber Essence

Amber essence works well to sensually entice, calm the mind and help in preparing for meditation or contemplation. Amber is known as the "King of Scents" and helps one to let go of daily concerns and to enter the world of sensual arousal or spiritual elevation, depending on the intention.

Either way, Amber essence will assist you in entering an exalted realm where thoughts are suspended and time stands still. Amber Essence brings us to delight. Its irresistible fragrance helps to open the heart center and expand consciousness through a deepening of theta wave brain states.

Amethyst Fairy Orb

A fairy is a being of light who was created by the divine universal consciousness and who also has wings which are very similar to the wings of a butterfly. Fairies usually fly around very quickly and on will become invisible to the human eye. They will usually camouflage themselves with their surroundings very easily and this is to protect themselves. Fairies enjoy music and dancing and having a lot of fun.

Fairies have also gained the reputation of playing tricks on humans and can be very mischievous. Have you ever lost something only to find it within a short space of time in an area that you have just checked. This is usually the fairies playing with you. If you lose something just ask the fairies to kindly return the item and it will be given back. If you find that crystals or jewellery often goes missing you could place a few small pieces of jewellery or crystals that you do not use in a secluded area and to tell the fairies that these items are for them to play with.

The fairies have a lot of knowledge and wealth with wonderful healing abilities that they will bestow on you if you ask them with a pure heart and always to give them something in return.

Some of the uses for this new healing system and working with the fairies include:

- *Abundance
- *Prosperity

Apophyllite Essence is a wonderful energy that facilitates clairvoyance or spiritual "seeing."

Apophyllite Essence can also be used to activate and open the heart chakra, energize the sluggish or closed heart and stimulate feelings of joy and celebration of life. Because of Apophyllite's energy to create a conscious connection between the physical and spiritual realms, Melody says, "Apophyllite facilitates attunement to one's body as well as to the higher dimensional life forms. It has been used to facilitate astral travel."

Apophyllite Essence can be used to maintain the energy necessary to assist in the actions required for preservation and rejuvenation. Apophyllite Essence considered powerful enough to clear negative energies in ours and our environmental.

Burdock and Charoite

Use Burdock Flower Essence when you are caught up in old anger, especially if the anger is directed at someone, usually an authority figure. Although the anger may be triggered by a current person/situation, the origin for this quality of anger is from a wound earlier in this life or a past life. This anger may also be related to an experience of grief or loss. Physical symptoms may manifest as toxicity - including heavy metals - in the liver, gallbladder, large intestine, or blood, skin issues like eczema and boils, and arthritis. If any of these symptoms are common in your family lineage, you may also want to consider Bloodroot Flower Essence.

Charoite releases victimization and negative emotions, and enhances courage and appropriate assertiveness. On the physical level, it can help to improve the condition of a diseased liver.

Provides for a connection between the head and the heart.

Instills Unconditional Love and Acceptance of others.

Assist one in understanding self-inflicted "lessons".

Helps in transforming relationships from one context to another, such as lovers into friends, and "letting go" of past attachments to a specific type of relationship helps to let go of attachments, and helps to instil the true belief that as one door closes, another one opens.

Assists in the belief that you are exactly where you are supposed to be right here, right now, in this moment.

Helps to bring about the best possible outcome for any given situation.

Charoite Essence

Charoite only became known in the world, just recently, and it of course was named for the location where it was discovered.

Discovered in Russia in 1978 in the Murun Mountains in Yakutia, to date, this the only known location for this rare mineral.

The name Charoite is derived from the Chary River which is near where it was found.

The colors range from bright lavender, violet and lilac to dark purple with swirling patterns of black Augite, transparent crystals of microcline feldspar, and/or orange Tinaksite.

Charoite has quite an unusual look, with its chatoyancy and strange looking spirally strands of fibrous material that often it is mistaken for a synthetic gemstone.

The Mongols use the stone to make decorative objects, and on special feast days they would boil the stone in tea.

This tea is then consumed by all members of the family in order to strengthen family ties and protect all its members from evil.

The Charoite stone is often confused with the fairly similar sugilite, although it is the charoite's characteristic light coloured inclusions that are the main difference between the two stones.

Charoite is an unusual mineral of quite rare occurrence.

It is found today only in one location, along the Chary River at Aldan in Russia.

It formed from an alteration of limestone by the close presences of an alkali-rich nepheline syenite intrusion.

It is the heat, the pressure and more importantly, the infusion of unique chemicals into the rock that is responsible for the transformations into completely new minerals such as Charoite.

Why Charoite has not been found in other locations is not fully understood, but is probably due to a combination of a chemically unique limestone reacting with a chemically unique intrusion and subjected to unique physical conditions.

Charoite is used as an ornamental stone as well as a gemstone.

It forms a swirling pattern of interlocking crystals.

Charoite will Work:

- Charoite is often called a 'stone of transformation' as well as a stone of power.
- In particular it transforms negative emotions such as anger and fear into positive feelings.
- As a part of the transformation process it allows release of those negative emotions, so one can change and move forward.
- Charoite is also known as a stone of inspiration, bringing enhanced creativity, spiritual growth and showing new possibilities in even the oldest situations.
- This is a stone that allows one to see clearly which brings with it enhanced self-esteem and helps release one from many victimizations.
- Charoite is known to enhance or bring courage, inner strength or appropriate assertiveness.
- In the psychic realm it is used for entity release and rescue work, as well as clairvoyance and prophesy.
- Charoite is said to be useful for the cleansing and purification of one's energy body as well as for the transmutation of negative energies within oneself.
- Charoite transmutes negativity and cleanses the aura.
- Charoite facilitates the release of fear and dissolution of negative energies encountered in the process of aligning with your soul's purpose.
- Work with Charoite to foster a synthesis between the heart and crown chakra, walk your spiritual path with awareness, and manifest your soul's wisdom and light in daily life.
- The purple colour of Charoite, among its other roles, helps to bring us closer to spirit by showing us that everything, even the thoughts we hold as true, can be dissolved and replaced with more empowering energies.
- The colour black in this stone grounds the purple ray, and enables us to explore the nature of our fears; while white represents the connection to spirit.

Crystal Skull Activation

The Crystal Skull Activation is the second in the trilogy of attunements that have been channelled to reconnect us to the energies of Atlantis and Gaia. The Crystal Skulls were physical objects during the times of the Atlanteans but after the fall of Atlantis, and subsequent sinking of the city, the crystal skulls were taken and remain hidden within a different dimension to ours but are still close enough for their energies to be felt.

Some of the skulls have rematerialized, which shows us that the time has come to reawaken to the knowledge contained within these skulls. This is why, during your attunement to the crystal skull activation, an Etheric crystal skull will be placed into your Transpersonal Point or Soul Star Chakra (8th Chakra). Working with the skull that is etherically given to you will aid in bringing the knowledge that they contain within them into your spiritual and life's path.

Crystal Children's Light

You can use this new energy form to help deal with the typical issues that Crystal's face now a days especially dealing with issues of fear and protection and creating safe places where they do not feel vulnerable and can open and use and discuss their abilities. This form can be used by the Crystal themselves or can be used by the parent to help the child. This is a multi-functional form that can be used for healing issues with Crystal's on an emotional and spiritual level - not a physical one. Crystal children - even the little ones can use this form. Their vibrational rate and natural born abilities will already know how to use this form.

Crystal Wind

Ever get the sense that your etheric body is beginning to look a bit like an attic? Well, it is!

How many attunement symbols do you have stuffed in there anyway...how many angels, critters, crystals, devas, mantras, deities, energies, myths, music and minerals, colors and spiritual tools and Faerie folk?

Getting a mite claustrophobic already?

Need a bit of air in there along with the clutter and cobwebs?

Enter...Crystal Wind.

Crystal Dragons

The Dragons are here with us now but they live at a higher Vibration than we do, this is why we do not see them as often as we used to.

This system is not a Healing System as such but is to be used for Spiritual Development and Spiritual Progression. I was also shown a Key that was to be placed within the Palms, Heart and Brow Chakra during the 3rd Crystal dragon Attunement. This will enable you to enter into the Crystal Dragon Realms during Meditation.

The 3 Crystal Dragons are as follows:

~ The Clear Quartz Dragon ~

~ The Rose Quartz Dragon ~

~ The Amethyst Dragon ~

Ideally you will need the 3 Dragon Eggs for these Attunements but if you are unable to obtain the 3 dragon eggs/Seer stones then normal tumble stones will be ok as long as the tumble stones are only used for accessing the energies of the Crystal dragons. Your Stones will also become attuned to these energies so they will have the added benefit of becoming dragon stones which you can use for protection, Guidance and meditation.

The Crystal Dragon manual includes:

~ Who the 3 Crystal dragons are, their names and there symbols ~

~ A Guided Dragon Meditation so you can meet you Dragon Companion/Guide ~

~ Information on the body's chakra system ~

~ A very powerful Chakra Meditation ~

Crystal Reiki

Crystal Reiki Masters Attunements will amplify the power of all your healing vibrational energies.

Accepting the commitment to become a Crystal Reiki Master is a life-changing experience - as all Crystal Reiki Masters who have recently received their attunements will testify.

Receiving the Crystal Reiki Master Attunements is the next stage which you need to take, before becoming fully enlightened.

At the first level it is experiencing reality as it is.

The second stage of Enlightenment is to feel a tremendous sense of connectedness with the world around you.

The third stage of Enlightenment is where you experience oneness with the universe. You experience Cosmic Consciousness.

Diamond Dolphin

This system is practically the same as The Trilogy Dolphin Reiki and uses also the love and energy of dolphins to heal the mind and the spirit. It is particularly effective at helping with emotional problems such as addictions, depression, and feelings of being separate; or incomplete. This energy can soothe the sadness of the soul, by helping us release past trauma, forgive ourselves and others, and finding our own truths.

The difference however is it is more useful for distance healing and chakra work.

With the manual you get an exact blueprint on how to heal and release fear. In my opinion it is very helpful if you work on yourself through chakra healing. Every chakra has fear vibrations of many childhood and even past life experiences. This method will help you to clear this ballast with the help of dolphins.
