Crystal Faery Shield

Crystal Faery Shield - Shed The Old and Be Protected As You Move Forward With New Founder: Joanna Rowan Mullane writes: As we truly start to embark upon our life journeys all of us will at one time or another experience a shedding of the old and letting go of the things that no longer serve our highest purpose. We in a sense, have a rebirth of our Spirits, we unfold as if we are butterflies, leaving the safety of our cocoons to fly towards our future destiny. This flight however does not always come easy and we sometimes find it hard to let go of the past and open our hearts to the love of the Universe that is here now! This beautiful and healing empowerment is a two-step process that works on One's physical, mental and spiritual bodies by first helping to cleanse and release those fragments of unwanted energies and layers, and then to imprint and integrate a protective Crystal Faery Shield of light that keeps us safe and protected so that we may become who we were destined to be.

Dragon Egg Reiki

From the Founder, Stewart Farquharson. "There is a legend in Prague that dragons could be raised from magical stones known as "dragon's eggs" to become servants and companions for humans.

This reiki is based on the founder, Stewart's, experience with such things. You will learn how to hatch such a stone, and what to expect. Clairvoyance is the ability to see with your imagination plus your astral senses. It uses that spooky "sixth sense" that tingles and lets you know when a stranger is staring at the back of your head. And it wraps the senses in visual images that are true, however colored they are by your personal cultural background, true to what astral being you face. It's not difficult to develop this balance. Just practice looking at flowers and trees quietly and intend to see fairy faces in the bark, or sense fairy energy in the leaves and flowers."

Enchanted Faery Goddess within Healing System

'This healing system will work on an area of your Mythic Goddess Self. This is one of a series of the Mythic Goddess Aspects of Self. In this system, the focus is the Faery Goddess within you or your 'Inner Faery'. The Faery symbolizes what is deeply embedded in your psyche, your Inner Faery, the Magical, Enchanting aspect of you that is unique and brings JOY to the world. This healing system is going to attune you to the great Magic and Enchantment of the loving and benevolent Faeries and Faery Goddesses so that you can recognize and ignite your Inner Fairy Magic. This will rekindle your sense of Magic and Imagination so that this aspect of you really begins to come to the surface in your life. This will greatly enrich your life!

The energies of this healing system are very feminine. The enchanting energies within you to draw passion and romance into your life will be reawakened so that you can be inspired and empowered in this area of your life. This will enable you to draw a new love or reignite the passion in an existing relationship. There is also a unique clearing that you can run anytime to remove anything blocking you from allowing your Enchanting Fairy Goddess from emerging.

The Inner Faery Goddess is confident and she prizes independence, is charming and engaging, charismatic and feminine and loves attention and being in the limelight of her true love or romantic interest. Perhaps you have lost this aspect of yourself and just need to reawaken it so that you can get the love, attention and limelight you need in your love life. It is easy to lose touch with this aspect of yourself when you walk between the worlds of romantic life and professional life as many of us do these days.

Energy and Magic Fairies

Channels are opened to the Fairy World. Through this special attunement there are activations of the third eye, the heart chakras and the root chakras. Naturally the attunement works on all Chakras, trying to manufacture equilibrium between them, but special attention lies on the three Chakras specified above.

The Symbols work as gate keys to the various Fairy functions.

All Fairy kinds are in different age groups and experience stages. Although each kind has certain registration numbers, one cannot always recognize the individual Fairy by its appearance alone. You need a certain experience and much intuition to distinguish them. Thus, calmly listen to your intuition about what the Fairies have told you.

Most frequently very young Fairies come into contact with humans and they have not yet had many negative experiences. Accordingly, one can communicate with them more easily.

~ Nature Fairies ~

~ Metal Fairies ~

~ Air Fairies ~

~ Water Fairies ~

~ PSI Fairies ~

~ Light Fairies ~

~ Stone fairies ~

~ Chaos Fairies ~

~ Energy Fairies ~

~ Fire Fairies ~

~ Darkness Fairies ~

~ Ice Fairies ~

An attunement alone will not create contact with the Fairies, but gives you a closer relationship to them. An attunement, however, can facilitate the introduction to them for you.

You must do this work for yourself; no one else can do this for you. Also practicing effective communication with the Fairies is left to you alone.

The Fairies also known as Faeries, Fey or Fae among many other names are often the most misunderstood of all the realms of spirit. For many it is easier to accept the existence of Angels as messengers of God and Guardians of Spirit, but Fairies are more often relegated to the world of children's make believe games. The truth is that the Fairies are as real as you and I and are. They are as much an integral part of our experience of this world where they dwell in their dimension as this physical realm we inhabit is. They are the keepers and guardians of all aspects of nature. These are the nature fairies who take care of all elements of nature, land based water and the shorelines of the sea, the air, fire, earth including soil , blades of grass , rocks , trees , plants and herbs and of course flowers.

Ghobs Reiki

Ghob, who is also known by his Greek name, Boreas, is the king of earth spirits, the gnomes. He is often seen as an older, grey-haired man. He is a strong and distinguished person who wears heavy, black robes and carries a magical sword. He brings security and protection with him. He has also been seen wearing clothes made from woven ferns sewn together with cobwebs. You will always know that he is around when you feel a cold blast of air suddenly come around you.

Ghob is quieter and shyer than the other elemental kings but that doesn't mean that you can mess him about. He is far stronger than the others but he prefers to hide himself away in the woods so that he doesn't come into contact with humans. If you wish to work with him you must first gain his trust by taking care of the earth, trees and woods that he protects. He is used to giving orders and everything he says is short and to the point.

Gnomes are shy, just like their king, and they are often seen in human form, sometimes as a small, stout person – just like the archetypical garden ornaments – but they can also be seen as tiny, fairy-like creatures. Their voices tend to be rather shrill and you can often hear them talking if you stand quietly in the woods at midnight.

Gnomes work with the earth, crystals, flowers, trees and rocks. We are harming gnomes and the other elementals by destroying nature and without the elementals the Earth will not recover. Gnomes need to be cherished so that they can recover their energies and continue their work healing our beautiful world.

Each gnome works within a particular area and they give objects such as crystals and flowers the energies they require to enable them to teach us and heal us. They also work hard to keep us grounded. Therefore, if you feel a little spaced out, call on the gnomes and Ghob to help you come back down to earth.

She is primarily known as a goddess in Polynesian cultures, and is as revered in New Zealand, Samoa and Tahiti as well as in Hawaii.

She is synonymous with beauty, creativity and productivity in all the places where her name is spoken.

Her name in Etruscan means "Magnificence", "Greatness", or "Glory", and She has also been identified with the Roman Victoria, victory personified.

Much like Alpan, Mean seems to have survived in Tuscan folklore as a benevolent fairy or spirit called Meana, considered a love-sprite who grants favors to lovers and brides.

Goddess Mean Will Help You With:

- Beauty
- Granting Love Favors to Brides & Lovers
- Fame
- Success
- Achieve your Goals
- Achieve Victory

Mermaids

Water beckons us. It is soothing and seductive... but it's also capable of unleashing deadly force. The mythic creatures that inhabit the depths give form to water's essential mysteries. They arouse feelings of curiosity, hope—and bottomless fear. Like water itself, these creatures can be beautiful and enticing. But will they share their life-giving bounty? Or lure us to destruction?

Mystical Mermaid Within Healing System

This system embodies the energies of several mermaid/sea Goddesses which include Amphitrite ('The Great Embracer' -- pre-Hellenic sea Goddess); Atargatis (Syrian mermaid Goddess); Mami Wata ('Mother Water' -- Nigerian mermaid Goddess); Sedna (Inuit sea Goddess).

The energies of this system will allow us to abandon ourselves (ego) and hurl our true (divine) selves into the deep, to sprout wings, and transform into a new form with Higher knowledge, understanding, wisdom and perception. The depth of the water (duality) can sustain life, give comfort and is a source of life and abundance. Water is symbolic for spiritual rebirth and renewal, purification and regeneration and is the source from which each person is born.

The Mermaids and the Mermaid/Sea Goddesses call us to the unknown, to change and transform the passage from one place to another, one form to another. These energies will help us to abandon what we are now so that we can become something new – something greater. We will overcome the fear of the unknown, of transformation, learning, losing ourselves, and being out of control, fearing the descent into the deep (the unconscious). It is not by chance that there are springs, wells, rivers, lakes and oceans all over the world and that these places have been sacred places for many, many cultures. This system being associated with water helps us to get in touch with the 'fluid' nature of our female sexuality side. This connects these energies to its ancient connection with the water.

The mermaid and mermaid/sea goddesses represent what is submerged deep within and how to bring it forward. Because this aspect of us embraces two worlds, the water (emotional) and the air (the mental or intellect) this healing will plunge deep into the depths of our being ness (the sea within) so that we can discover the profound powers of our Hidden Inner Treasures as well as receive balance in these aspects of Self. This will enable us to rise above Earth bound (the waves) concerns so that we can reach the stars of awakening Higher Consciousness. This will bring us the Highest Pearls of Wisdom from within us so that we can embrace the joy of a New World right inside us and allow the true (Divine) self to emerge from the abyss and attract all good things to us in all areas of our lives.

Additionally among other aspects of ourselves that are released will be the inner seductress/seducer as we will no longer have to hide our desires of the sexual subconscious or feel as though we have to return to the amniotic waters of the womb and hide. We can abandon our old habitat where we are afraid or ashamed of our sexual powers and re-emerge in the light of Spirit knowing that our powers and desires in this area are Spirit-given, blessed by Spirit, good and that Spirit wants us to enjoy these releasing a lifetime of frustration and finding the erotic woman or man within us! When we are having trouble moving freely through the realms of feeling and insight and need help so that we can courageously trust life within its weaving of pictures and debacles of grief and pain the energies will give us strength so that we can move beyond the watery emotions of our limited personal perceptions into other worlds of inner enchantment. The Fish Tailed Goddess within can then create his or her emergence into all its glory and fullness. We have earned this gift for ourselves. You are encouraged to rise up and receive the wonder and adventure of a New World right inside you!

This system is very easy to use. It includes a releasement clearing, programming a stone for healing, and much more. You will receive the attunement, manual, certificate straight from the founder and many blessings from the powerful energies of the Mermaids and Mermaid Goddesses this system embodies.

Nature Devas and Fairies

Nature Devas and Fairies Attunements are designed for people interested in working with the Devas and Spirits inhabiting the Kingdom of Nature.

Nature Devas and Fairies Attunements are for healers who want to integrate the energy vibrations of these beings in their therapeutic healing work as well as for people generally interested in self-healing and guidance on their path to self-development. The energies of these beings vibrate on a more earthly plane and unlike angels these beings are easier to perceive by humans for they are more similar in appearance to humans; the main difference is that they are etheric beings - meaning they are predominated by the “natural-subtle” energy vibrations.

Nature Devas and their sub-categories such as Fairies, Elves, etc., are of great help in guiding us through difficult periods in our lives and giving us advice as well as for helping us in re-charging our “energy tank” by absorbing the strengthening and invigorating energies of nature.

Paralda is king of the air spirits, the Sylphs. He is usually seen as a young man with long, fair hair and wearing clothes of light blue, the colour of the spring sky. He has a calming nature like a light summers' breeze but he can also be as wild and tumultuous as a hurricane. He has the reputation of being able to look into your innermost thoughts and secrets.

Sylphs are constantly changing elementals that are always moving. They move effortlessly, flying with the birds, dancing on the wind and everything is done extremely fast. You can often hear them whispering, like a breeze gently moving the leaves of a tree.
