Goddess Lakshmi means Good Luck to Hindus. The word 'Lakshmi' is derived from the Sanskrit word "Laksya", meaning 'aim' or 'goal', and she is the goddess of wealth and prosperity, both material and spiritual.

Lakshmi is one of the mother goddesses and is addressed as "mata" (mother) instead of just "devi" (goddess).

As a female counterpart of Lord Vishnu, Mata Lakshmi is also called 'Shri', the female energy of the Supreme Being. She is the goddess of prosperity, wealth, purity, generosity, and the embodiment of beauty, grace and charm.

Lakshmi is the household goddess of most Hindu families, and a favorite of women.

These roots hang down and act as props over an ever widening circle, reflecting the Sanskrit name bahupada, meaning 'one with many feet'. In Hindu culture, the banyan tree is considered sacred and is called "Vat Vriksha." God Shiva as Dakshinamurthy is nearly always depicted sitting in silence under the banyan with rishis at his feet. It is thought to symbolize eternal life due to its seemingly unending expansion. Buddha is believed to have achieved enlightenment in Bodhgaya in India while meditating under a banyan tree.

Being depressed and not knowing how else to help the man nearing death the Lama sat down next to him.

At that point there was a blinding bright white light and before Atisha appeared the Buddha of Compassion, the Thousand-Armed Avalokiteshwor Chenrezig.

The Buddha told Lama Atisha that he was going to manifest himself as the God of Wealth, Dzambhala, and assure that those in poverty would suffer no longer.

Maha Kali Seichem

Ancient Origins of Knowledge of other ancient healing systems sheds light on the pre-Usui origins of Reiki. The Hindu and Tibetan Buddhist devotion to Kali the Mother and Maha Kali is normally thought of as just performing sadhana (daily prayer rituals) and reciting her mantras. However, taught orally from teacher to student, there was also a healing system that is similar to the Reiki/Seichim method of initiation and attunement.

In another aspect the Mother Divine is called Maha Kali. In this aspect she is the warrior Mother who is fighting all the time against the hostile forces, against human imperfection, limitation, bondage and death. At the same time, she is all Compassion for the sincere seekers. In all Her divine aspects, the transcendental Mother is full of Compassion, but in this aspect she is undoubtedly the Mother of Compassion. Maha Kali has more Compassion than the others, for she does not allow anyone to cherish imperfection in the physical plane, the vital plane, the mental plane, or in any other plane. It is her infinite Compassion that frees men from the fetters of ignorance.

Mahamrityunjaya Mantra Empowerment

By Ramon Martinez Lopez. There are two Empowerments included in this system. Maha Mrityunjaya Mantra and breathing technique.

The Mahamrityunjaya Mantra (Sanskrit: महामृ॒त्युं॒ज 351; मंत्र, mahāmṛtyuṃjaya mantra "Great Death-conquering Mantra"), also called the Tryambakam Mantra, is a verse of the Rigveda (RV 7.59.12). It is addressed to Tryambaka, "the three-eyed one", an epithet of Rudra, later identified with Shiva. The verse also recurs in the Yajurveda (TS 1.8.6.i; VS 3.60)

The Maha Mrityunjaya Mantra was found by Rishi Markandeya. It was a secret mantra, and Rishi Markandeya was the only one in the world who knew this mantra. The Moon was once in trouble, cursed by King Daksha. Rishi Markandeya gave the Mahamrityunjaya Mantra to Sati, Daksha's daughter, for the Moon. This is how this mantra became known which according to another version is the Bija mantra as revealed to Rishi Kahola that was given by Lord Shiva to sage Sukracharya who taught it to Rishi Dadicha who gave it to King Kshuva through whom it reached the Shiva Purana.

It is also called the Rudra mantra, referring to the furious aspect of Lord Shiva; the Tryambakam mantra, alluding to Shiva's three eyes; and it is sometimes known as the Mrita-Sanjivini mantra because it is a component of the "life-restoring" practice given to the primordial sage Sukracharya after he had completed an exhausting period of austerity. Its Devata is Rudra or Lord Shiva in his fiercest and most destructive roopa or aspect. In the Vedas it finds its place in three texts - a) the Rig veda VII.59.12, b) the Yajur Veda III.60, and c) the Atharva Veda XIV.1.17.

Mahamrityunjaya Mantra is the great mantra for conquering death for it protects against all threats and at the time of death eases the process of release. It is one of the more potent of the ancient mantras, a call for enlightenment and a practice of purifying the karmas of the soul at a deep level. It is beneficial for mental, emotional and physical health. It is also a moksha mantra which bestows longevity and immortality.

According to some puranas, the Mahamrityunjaya Mantra has been used by many Rishis as well as Sati during the time when Chandra suffered from the curse of Prajapati Daksha. By reciting this mantra, the effect of the curse of Daksha, that could make him die, slowed, and Shiva then took Chandra and placed it upon his head.

This mantra is addressed to Lord Shiva for warding off untimely death. It is also chanted while smearing Vibhuti over various parts of the Body and utilised in Japa or Homa (havan) to get desired results. While its energy protects and guides the initiates a mantra re-links consciousness to its deeper and more abiding nature and repetition of the mantra constitutes Japa, the practice of which develops concentration that leads to a transformation of awareness. Whereas the Gayatri Mantra is meant for purification and spiritual guidance, the Mahamrityunjaya Mantra is meant for healing rejuvenation and nurturance.

The Hindu Triumvirate Initiations are a set of 3 attunements that are designed to connect you with the three main forms of Lord Brahman, the Supreme Spirit or Supreme power within the universe. The Hindu Triumvirate is the Hindu trinity of the primary aspects of the divine which consist of Lord Brahma, Lord Vishnu and Lord Shiva.

Brahma is known as the creator of the universe while Vishnu is called upon for the preservation of the world. Shiva's role is to destroy the universe in order for it to then be recreated. The unique aspects of the divine trinity can also be applied to your spiritual life in that through working with the aspects of each God you will learn how you can also gain the responsibility for the creation, upkeep and removal of all things that you no longer need or want in your own life.

The destruction of the old in order for the new to come through is a major challenge for anyone and this challenge is ruled by the ego mind/self. The Ego self never wants to release the energies which we have kept as part of our being for such a long period of time but it is through this releasement that you will be able to attract more of what you need and more of what you want in your life. Whether this be happiness, freedom, abundance or success. Everything is yours but you can only receive what you really want when you have made room for these blessings to come to you.

Through this system you will also learn about the many aspects of each God can and will be applied to your life in order to bring about the changes that you are wanting to achieve.
