Adamantine Vajra Armor Mantras Empowerments

Tibetan mantras healing empowerments of the elements. An ultimate healing system channeled by Ramón Martínez Lopez.

History: The Vairocanabhisambodhi-sutra was a work in the history of Tantric Buddhism, offering one of the first fully developed expositions of this form of Buddhism. In India and Tibet, it came to be secret as a Carya Tantra, or "Practice Tantra," corresponding to the second category of what was to become in Tibet the standard fourfold classification of Buddhist tantras, only to be eventually superseded to a large degree by the Sarvatathagatatattva samgraha and the large body of literature spawned by this latter text (corresponding to the Yoga and Anuttarayoga Tantras). In East Asia, on the other hand, the Vairocana - bhisambodhi-sutra has remained together with the Sarvatathagata tattva samgraha one of the two basic texts of Esoteric Buddhism and could indeed be said to have been the more influential of the two. (A translation of the Sarvatathagata - tattva samgraha, under the title Adamantine Pinnacle Sutra, appears in the volume Two Esoteric Sutras, Numata Center, 2001.)

To date no manuscript of the original Sanskrit text of the Vairocana bhisambodhi-sutra has been discovered (although a number of passages are either referenced in other Sanskrit works or preserved in Chinese transcription), but it was translated into Chinese (Taisho no. 848) and Tibetan (Peking no. 126). The Sanskrit title preserved in the Tibetan translation is Mahavairocana bhisambodhi - vikurvita dhirsthana-vaipulya sutrendraraja-nama-dharmaparyaya (Dharma Discourse Called "Mahavairocana's Enlightenment, Miracles, and Empowerment," King of the Best of the Extensive Scriptures). The title of the Chinese version, on the other hand, may be translated as "Scripture of the Enlightenment, Supernatural Transformations, and Empowerment o Mahavairocana," but the Chinese commentary informs us that the full title included the words Mahavaipulya - sutrendra raja, which tallies closely with the title preserved in the Tibetan translation. (The term vaipulya-sutra, or "extensive scripture," is a common designation of Mahayana sutras.) Buddhaguhya, its chief commentator in India, meanwhile, refers to it as a tantra, and Sanskrit texts generally cite it simply as Vairo canabhisambodhi or Vairocana bhisambodhi-tantra. Since the Chinese translator Subha kara silha does not use the word tantra (and although it is widely known as the Mahavairocana-sutra), it will hereafter be referred to as the Vairo cana bhisambodhi-sutra.

The Chinese translation was produced in seven fascicles by Subha kara - silha (637U735) and his Chinese disciple Yixing (683U727) in 724U5, apparently on the basis of a manuscript sent to China some decades earlier by the Chinese monk Wuxing, who died in India in 674. rigorously speaking, it is only the first six fascicles in thirty-one chapters that correspond to the Vairocanabhi - sambodhi-sutra proper, with Fascicle Seven (in five chapters) composing a ritual manual that is preserved as a separate work in the Tibetan canon (Peking no. 3488). The Tibetan translation, on the other hand, was produced almost a century later in the early ninth century by Silendrabodhi and dPal-brtsegs, and in addition to the base text in twenty-nine chapters it includes a "Continuation Tantra" (Uttara-tantra) in seven chapters not found in the Chinese version.

In this "workshop" you are attuned and empowered to the Ritual of the mystic seal of the adamantine armor mantra and the later Tibetan vajra armor mantra and cosmic diamond armor mantra and how to empower elements with unique mantras. Also, you are going to know how to be prepared for a ritual healing, meditation and shield, able to remove evil-minded beings of extreme ferocity, you will see adamantine blazing fiery light all over the ground. Overcome negative forces. Remove many negative forces and illnesses. By merely binding this ritual [seal], immeasurable armies of the heavenly negative forces and other obstructors will all most certainly disperse.

With it and adamantine armor, and on description of this secret embellishment you will become indestructible, like a vajra in nature. All those who hear your voice or see or touch you will most certainly be with all merits completely accomplished, and you will be equal to the World-honored One Vairocana, with no difference.

The Vajra Armor Mantra is not only a powerful healing method, but a deep path to illumination, ultimately leading to the achievement of the rainbow body. It is one of the few paths, along with P'howa, that do not require the Ngondro (the 500,000 accumulations) as a prerequisite to practice. It is a path in its own right, with many levels and degrees of mastery. As one traverses the path, through a series of short retreats and ongoing practice, one systematically purifies the five elements within one's own body and thus attains the ability to purify the elemental imbalances in another. In this way, diseases are removed. With further training, the practitioner cuts through the five poisons of anger, desire, ignorance, jealousy and pride, and in turn attains the ability to work directly with the elemental essences in the environment. Thus, one is able to control the weather patterns, increase prosperity, subjugate harmful influences and restore peace and harmony. In advanced stages of training, one gains control over therefore preventing the rise and spread of contagious disease, natural disasters, and poverty. In the final stages of practice, the three poisons are transformed into the three kayas, and the five poisons become the five wisdoms. Thus, the very elemental essences of one's body are transmuted into the five wisdom lights, and one's own body is transformed into the 'rainbow body.'

Assists in appeasing Energetic Imbalances & Disturbances – within one's Physical & Subtle Energy Systems. A "Healing" Effect may take place on different levels. This occurs due to the Rebalancing Energies projected to all of those within the range of the Sound of the Mantra. Both the Inner and Outer Elements of All receiving these Precious Benefits - are Affected and Positively Transformed - into Healing Regenerative Energies as well as - Divine Protection. The Vajra Armor Mantra (sometimes called The Dorje Gotrab Mantra). In particular is said to possess an "Infinite Potential" to Balance many complex relationships within the various parts of one's physical and subtle bodies.

Dorje Dempa Vajrasattva Purification Attunement

Founder, Ramon Martinez Lopez. The Vajrasattva Purification system has a mantra to state repeatedly to ensure that negative karmas do not increase. The mantra is used to purify our bodies.

The system has a visualization technique that is used to free all sentient beings from their sufferings and makes invocations to all the light beings. Light Rays of Light Beings goes to become Vajrasattva in our hearts. It radiates light in the infinitive directions of the cosmos invoking all light beings in the aspect of Vajrasattva who absorb into him.

You may request Vajrasattva to destroy all negativity of all sentient beings including yourself. Light radiates at his heart and purifies the negativity of all sentient beings. Then again from his heart light rays go out invoking the knowledge and qualities of all light beings, bringing these back to descend into the eternity. Due to this, Vajrasattva energy becomes extremely powerful.

Imagine that on the moon-disc in your heart is your in ordinary aspect surrounded by your father and mother and all sentient beings in human aspect. These rays come down through the point of union of Vajrasattva and his consort to your heart and each sentient being receives a Vajrasattva with consort above his head, at the hearts of all these countless Vajrasattvas and consorts light rays energy become even more powerful and magnificent.

From the hearts of all the countless Vajrasattvas light nectar pours down entering the crowns of every sentient being purifying. Negativity goes.

Ishana Vajra

Everyone has the power within them to be a true co-creator who manifests all that they think of. This attunement process makes that happen! To that end, it is a great tool for spiritual growth as it will teach you to discipline your thoughts like nothing else. You have heard it said that you should be careful what you wish for? Well, Ishana will make those wishes come true, and often almost immediately. Ishana Vajra Nath™ means Rays of God that govern the universe. The universe refers to the world of human beings (Micro-Cosmic)-human life. Ishana Vajra Nath™ is energy which is centered in the Anahata Chakra. This energy is able to restore or activate the actual and natural ability of human as a Co-Creator; it restores and activates the natural ability of humans to create and to manifest all of the things they have in mind. After obtaining the activation, Ishana Vajra Nath™ will work automatically and continuously in the practitioner's body as a protector, and working in all the things done by practitioners in daily life such as healing, business, career, love and other relationships. In Ishana Vajra Nath™ there is no special training required, after receiving the activation, the Ishana Vajra Nath energy will flow and work constantly, especially working at the time when needed. Ishana Vajra Nath™ has four main groups, that is :

ISHANA :

There are six levels in Ishana, at each level of energy in the Anahata Chakra at an Ishana will be activated and become stronger at every level. Ishana activation is performed by level with an interval of seven days for each level. Alternatively, it could be done in a single level of activation for 1st level to 3rd level of Ishana and then seven days later for 4th - 6th level of Ishana, It depends on the policy of the Ishana Vajra or Ishana Vajra Rudra or Ishana Vajra Shiva who gave the activation. These six attunements, and all of the other Ishana attunements take a great amount of time, attention and prayer to set up properly, and so the cost is higher than that of other attunements. And, the rewards of receiving the attunements are also much greater as well.

Vajra Tummo Reiki

The History of Vajra Tummo Reiki :

Vajra Tummo Reiki or VTR is a variation of Reiki whose roots come from the esoteric Ancient Tibetan systems. The earliest form of VTR is the tradition called Vajra gTummo.

Vajra means "Thunder". The word represents the energy from knowledge which has brightness.

gTummo or Tummo means "Holy Fire" Mostly, this gTummo or Tummo also known as "Kundalini". Kundalini is part of a Yoga tradition known as "The Six Yogas Of Naropa". Reiki means "Universal Life-Force Energy". The word represents the universal life force accessed to assist healing.

VTR was founded by Grand Master Yan Nurindra from a conscious channeling process with Prana Shakti Samadhi to the Tibetan Ascended Master. From this Ascended Master he received the knowledge and energy of gTummo and "Angkur Vajra gTummo".

Vajra in this VTR is different from Vajra in gTummo because the meaning of these two words is very different. In gTummo, Vajra is the Highest Level or rank in gTummo. While in VTR, Vajra means we have accessed Vajra gTummo Energy. Vajra gTummo itself should be learnt separately and through an initiation or attunement process called "Anchor".

Technically, Vajra gTummo energy consists of gTummo energy with Vajra energy. Both of these energies can be activated / used together or separately.
