Eighth Pleiadian Star Empowerments

Mega stars like Pleiades are extremely luminous stars - stars with luminosity at least 10,000 times that of our Sun. See this as part of the arising of a galactic level of consciousness, which lies at the heart of a new star wisdom. Could it be the Cosmic Christ who is behind this awakening of consciousness to the galaxy? Be that as it may, the awakening to this galactic level of consciousness signifies a step for humanity comparable to the new consciousness that came about through the Copernican revolution, when the old geocentric solar system gave way to the new heliocentric one.

Galactic awareness signifies an expansion of consciousness to include the whole of the Milky Way galaxy.

Though the eighth star of Pleiades don't seem visible, its energy goes to Galactic awareness, an expansion of consciousness and your soul awareness, all your love experiences throughout your entire existence.

The eighth star represents your soul star or your eighth chakra were all the energies are one.

About magenta spectrum:

If you see the colour MAGENTA as being in between Violet and Red, you will see the metaphor for Absolution of Duality. It is only possible to experience the living of Heaven (Violet) on Earth (Red), when polarities no longer exist. It is for this reason that the Akashic Record is held in the MAGENTA chakra – beyond duality and the ensuing FALSE judgments this state creates.

It is also important to consider MAGENTA'S complement/opposite – Olive Green. The process of opening ones self to the full potential of MAGENTA, is greatly supported by understanding the energies of its colour complement, and making a conscious effort to keep the Olive Green chakra clear.

MAGENTA COLOUR ENERGY – Strengthens contact with your life purpose. Comprised of 2 parts Red and 1 part Blue, this tertiary colour lies “hidden” between Red and Violet. Therefore MAGENTA is both the end and the beginning of the Light Spectrum – representing the Alpha and the Omega – the fullest expression of Divine Love. As such, MAGENTA contains or holds all the other colors including the White Light.

Is it any wonder then, that MAGENTA is interpreted by the most ancient teachings of the Great Mystery Schools, as the colour of the 8th chakra – “ The Soul Star ” – residing just outside the physical body, and above the head. In this capacity, MAGENTA contains our individual “Soul Blueprint”, otherwise known as our “Akashic Record”.

Connection to this chakra ( The Soul Star) reveals our reason for incarnating – our Divine Mission – and then further supports our energies to actualize it. If you view the MAGENTA ray as preceding the colour Red, it could be said that the soul descends to body. Conversely, if MAGENTA is seen as following the colour Violet, then the body has ascended to spirit.

Here you are attuned to

- Eighth star empowerment and symbol
- magenta full spectrum
- which includes your
- soul star

- Family soul's stars
- And Earth soul star

Golden Kundalini Prana

Kundalini gives a seeker true understanding of all the experienced pleasures. When Para Kundalini, Universal energy or para kundalini., penetrate all the knots, which sustain the sense of limitation, the knowledge of the Absolute unfolds. She fills the minds of sincere spiritual seeker with bliss, leads them to the state of illumination and dissolves all their worldly bonds, drinking the essence of the ecstasy of the light; the entire world becomes the embodiment of the self.

Although Kundalini permeates the human body, She has a special dwelling at the center of the body, in the muladhara chakra at the base of the spine. In fact, there are three kinds of Kundalini within the body - Prana Kundalini, Chit Kundalini and Para Kundalini - each of which has a different location. Kundalini can be awakened at all three locations; however, it is at the muladhara that She is usually awakened. The word mula means root and adhara means support. According to the Sanskrit scriptures, this root is three inches long, and within it the Shakti (living force) resides in a subtle form, coiled three and one-half times; this is why She is known as Kundalini, the coiled one. When She is awakened, She uncoils and begins to journey upwards towards the sahasrara.

In this state, you lose the awareness of your own body, and merge with the body of God. It was when he became absorbed in the intoxication of this state of divinity – and you say "I am God". The truth is, this very body is the temple of God. There is no greater temple than this human body. Everyone should contemplate this and understand that God lies within.

This is the knowledge that arises as Kundalini merges in the sahasrara, Only oneness. Just as a river, after flowing for a long time, merges with the ocean and becomes the ocean, when Kundalini has finished Her work and stabilized in the sahasrara, you become completely immersed in God. All your impurities and casing are destroyed, and you take complete rest in the Self. The veil which made you see duality drops away, and you experience the world as a blissful engage in recreation of Kundalini, a spot of God's energy. You see the universe as supremely blissful light, undifferentiated from yourself, and you remain unshakeable in this awareness. This is the state of liberation, the state of perfection.

It activates your kundalini from the first chakra to the blue pearl, prana channels, golden kundalini prana, golden kundalini prana chakras, golden pearl golden prana

Hanta Yo Mantra Empowerment

Hanta Yo is a Lakota Sioux term that means "clear the way". It indicates the intention of drawing on the Great Spirit to clear the way while you do your part with faith. All mystical, conscious work, including yoga, meditation, the martial arts, and even organic gardening are about connecting to an infinite source of creative potential. Techniques vary but the goals are identical: to conduct the life force more dynamically through the body/mind of the human being. This focused energy is then applied toward healing, well-being and creative expression.

Hanta Yo is an entrancing portal into Native American cosmology.

Hanta yo is of the Four Great Powers of the Medicine Wheel. To the North is found Wisdom. The South is the place of Innocence and Trust. The West is the Looks-Within Place, which speaks to our introspective Nature. The East is the Place of Illumination, where we can see things clearly, far and wide.

Hanta yo is universal, goes beyond Native Americans and it goes all around the world.

Kryon Essences

Quote from the Founder, Melanie Shivanie Pfetzing

In September 2005 Melanie Shivanie Pfetzing who has been standing in connection with Kryon since May 2005, channeled from him three essences and a few days later another four essences.

These essences and this energy form are suitable only for people who have removed the old energy. No basic experience in working with any other energy system is required to receive these energies. The Kryon essences are independent form of energy.

This particular form of energy is intended for people who are stepping into the 5th dimension. This new energy will integrate in your light body, adapting to your current state of being and as this is right for you.

Since the Kryon energy is a very strong energy it adapts to your vibrations and gradually rise them, align you, and thus increase your light body.

The Kryon essences have nothing to do with Reiki or other healing energy systems.

The essences are passed in two levels, with a space of 2 weeks.

Use Zincite to transcend these passionate feelings into the physical body. Use the orange Zincite crystal when you need to add creativity into your life. This can be any type of creativity, from writing a book to starting a family. The yellow variety of Zincite can be used to transmute feelings of inadequacy to feelings of fearlessness This yellow crystal will feed our will power and give us courage to face everyday fears. I have found Zincite to work very well in conjunction with other stones. the Zincite will work to transmute that energy.

Zincite with Chrysocolla is a good combination to increase the flow of prana energy, while keeping you calm and nurtured.

Chrysocolla is generally associated with peace and tranquility, as well as intuition, patience and unconditional love. It is often thought to offer gentle and soothing qualities, it is believed to be a powerful source of life-force energy, as well as a stone for feminine empowerment; helping to build feminine energies and calm emotions.

Chrysocolla helps to clear the subconscious of negative feelings of guilt, fears and tension, and bring up inner strength. It aids in releasing old resentment and in forgiving people you've been holding resistance to. It is exceptionally helpful in dealing with the anger and pain associated with rape, or abuse of any kind.

It is told to be quite useful to one for expressing those emotions which are fire based, such as anger, fear, passion or excitement. Chrysocolla has been known to raise the metabolism to assist in rectifying an imbalance or to help in losing weight.

Chrysocolla is known to promote level headedness, encouraging clarity of thought and a neutral, calm attitude during turbulence. It can also be used to decrease nervousness and irritability.

Healing Properties:

Chrysocolla is best known among Native American Indian cultures for its capability of strengthening the body's resistance and bringing about calm feeling where there has been upset and turmoil. It enhances creativity in all, female energy and communication, as well as relieving ulcers and arthritis.

Magical Properties:

Energy: Receptive

Element: Water

Powers: Peace, Wisdom and Love

Chrysocolla makes abridge of energy between the Earth and the Sky, the physical and the spiritual planes. A stone with very feminine energies, chrysocolla ease the mental and emotional pains of any troubled relationship by relieving tension and bringing out your inner strengths.

When attempting to remove yourself from a troublesome or even dangerous relationship or situation, especially those filled with emotional tension, draw a nine inch circle on a piece of paper. Set a piece of chrysocolla in the center of the circle, sit and meditate on what this situation is costing you in manners of self-esteem, physical danger, emotional stress and psychological duress, as well as monetarily. Force yourself to see it for it's full and true ugliness....no excuses! Do this for nine nights, each time moving the stone closer and closer to the edge of the circle. In the meantime, take whatever measures are appropriate and necessary for you to be safe. By the end of the ninth night, you should be able to remove the stone completely from the circle.

If however, you have procrastinated, and taken to steps to physically help remove yourself from this situation, moving the stone to the edge of the circle will not gain you freedom from the problem. You may start again, but you should consider why you were unable to do it the first time, before beginning again.

New Prosonodo Stars

And star of Bethlehem or deneb

Why was this so important? because this was the position on the Milky Way where the Milky Way splits into two, like forks into two (branches) to create what is known as the Dark cleft, the back memories of the unloved soul.

"If you start looking into the religious ideas of cultures and indigenous civilizations, you'll find that the star Deneb, Cygnus constellation, in the Milky Way's Dark aperture was seen as a point of entry and exit into the sky world. It was seen as this is where the souls came from and this is where the souls return to in death. It is the turning point into wholeness.

The golden-blue frequency and many other frequencies, the proclaimers trust and that trust is described as the star of Bethlehem. In reality it is the Prosonodo light.

This Prosonodo Light is the living Christ and the cosmic meridians of energy of life. to follow this Prosonodo light star. So it came about that many kinds of frequencies, with many People went on their uniqueness way to witness the birth of Christ within. Reborned into spirit, and guided by higher forces of light.

Just as there are meridians-lines of energy flow-in the human being, these meridians exist also in the greater cosmos of the macrocosm. As may be understood from the law of correspondences "as above, so below", if there are meridians in the human being, they must exist also "above" in the cosmos. We can picture an energy flow streaming from each star and intersecting our archetypical bodies of believes, the place of intersection is indicating the point of influx of the energy flowing from our cosmos into our solar system and so whenever the Sun or any planet in our solar system crosses the Deneb meridian, the Deneb energy flows in to unite with that planet or with our Sun. (Here energy is to be understood as the Divine Energy or Divine Love radiating from the stars.)

Focusing upon the meridians as energy lines flowing through every star, the entire celestial sphere becomes significant. Here you are attuned to your entire energetic auric field with cosmic meridians.

Toad Bufo Alvarius Empowerment

known as "the toad of the dawn" or "the Sapo DMT".

Live in the present beyond illusions

Sexual-emotional disorders, abuse, additions, guilt conflicts, determents your disconnection of your true self.

DMT is released by the pineal gland while a person is approaching death. Thus explaining the imagery reported by survivors of near death experiences. This to the beginning of the soul. He often referred to the drug as the "God molecule" or the "spirit molecule"

Effects of DMT

- * Intense visuals
- * Altered concept of time
- * Stomach discomfort
- * Overwhelming fear
- * Lung irritation
- * Increased heart rate
- * Increased body temperature

Using DMT can be a serious health risk that results in death. Users can go into a state of unconsciousness or a drug induced coma.

5-meO-DMT a neurotransmitter molecule from the glands of the Bufo Alvarius, a toad living in the Sonora (Mexico) desert - is one of the deepest experiences, that a human being can obtain on this planet at any level: physical, emotional, mental and spiritual. This empowerment breaks the chemical filters that the human mind uses to prevent a continuous state of perception, awakening and complete consciousness. These filters are necessary for our day to day life, as they help us to function in this three dimensional reality, limited by space and time.

As soon as we open those filters it seems that we are finally able to put our ego to sleep and then go into a state of deep meditation, that means that we would be able to access the superconscious part of our mind, our true nature, oneness and unconditional love. With this empowerment you do not need the chemical. Effects and dangers of bufoteina and DMT are suppressed.

Walk-In Transitional Alignment

The Walk-in Transitional Alignment Attunement was channelled in 2013 by Raine & Philip Hilton.

The process and transition that occurs when a Walk-in experience appears within someone's life can be a huge trauma to the physical body as it accepts the process of dying, soul separation and the integration of the new soul. This transition can manifest itself in many ways including physical and mental imbalances such as severe allergic reactions to food, sensitivity to chemicals, asthma, anxiety attacks, depression, M.E. epilepsy or seizures. These occur as the body tries to reject the new soul much in the same way someone who has had a heart or liver transplant can experience tissue rejection. The re-integration of a walk in soul takes time and it must be performed within every aspect of your being ( Physically, Emotionally and Mentally ).

For some this doesn't always happen and they live their life constantly out of alignment, plagued with ill health and mental and emotional issues. Working with the Walk-in Transitional Alignment distant attunement and the channelled exercise, you will gain the ability to fully integrate your walk-in soul with your physical body and to make peace with the residual energy and karmic responsibilities of the previous occupant. This energy works on each of the 7 layers of the aura as well as the 7 main chakras including the Soul Star and Earth Star Chakra. Through the process of working with these extra chakras you will firmly anchor your new soul to your physical body which over time depending on the kind of ailments you are suffering from this energy may heal and improve your overall health. Results will vary from person to person.

The Walk-in Transitional Alignment Attunement Manual includes the following:

- * Explanation of what a Walk-In is, Walk In Quiz, and how the exchange happens.
